August, 2023

Dear

Thanks to your patronage and support - be it as a sponsor, advertiser, donor, or audience member - Capital Singers of Trenton will celebrate its 17th consecutive year as "The Choral Voice of the Capital Region" beginning with our annual Winter Songs concert on December 3.

Detailed information about our 2023 -2024 season will appear in our ad journal/program book, which will be distributed to hundreds of audience members at our season's five concerts, from December 2023 to June 2024. Your five ads – for the price of one – will appear in the following programs:

- December 3, 2023 – "Winter Songs XVII: In December" - CST Combined
- March 15, 2024 – "Her Sacred Spirit Soars" - CST Chorale
- May 5, 2024 – "Shout for Joy!" - CST Combined
- May 19, 2024 – "The Elements" - Women's Ensemble
- June 9, 2024 – "Spring Concert at the Shore" - Beach Haven, NJ

This season is even more noteworthy because it is the fifth anniversary of our immensely talented and highly regarded Artistic Director and Conductor – Vinroy D. Brown, Jr. In five short years, Maestro Brown not only guided and kept CST alive and vibrant during the pandemic, but he also expanded CST's repertoire and performance engagements, in addition to

- Increasing the number, diversity, and caliber of the chorus
- Re-establishing and strengthening the CST Chorale
- Instituting a highly-acclaimed Women's Ensemble
- Expanding collaborations with local and regional arts organizations
- Enhancing the image and status of CST in the choral arts world.

CST's concerts are always enjoyed and well attended, and now that the Covid virus no longer poses the threat it once did, this season's performances, along with our celebration of Maestro Brown's anniversary, are sure to draw larger audiences than ever before.

I have attached an ad/rate sheet which explains how you can join other businesses and individuals in their show of support and appreciation for the arts, the capital city, our renowned director/conductor, and the remarkable success and longevity of Capital Singers of Trenton (www.capitalsingers.org).

Thank you for your support!
